Sightseeing on our UNESCO World Heritage site

UNESCO World Heritage

Thusis – Tirano

Running along 122 kilometres of track, passing through 55 tunnels and over 196 bridges and viaducts, the Albula / Bernina Line is a masterpiece of engineering. Its combination with the surrounding landscape is what constitutes its recognition as a UNESCO World Heritage site. The highlights of the route include the Landwasser Viaduct 4, the heart of the Landwasser World.

Bernina Express

Chur / St. Moritz – Tirano

Take a seat and prepare to be amazed: experience the beauty of the Alps and astonishing feats of railway engineering aboard the Bernina Express as the observation-car train negotiates the heart of the UNESCO World Heritage site. From Chur (Fig. 1), the oldest city in Switzerland, the train passes through the Domleschg 2, the region with the highest density of castles in Europe. It then negotiates the dark Schin Gorge before traversing the 85-metre high Solis Viaduct 3 to enter the wild and romantic Albula Valley, where it crosses the world-famous Landwasser Viaduct 4 and enters a tunnel hewn into a sheer rock face. Alternatively, the journey can also be started in Davos, the highest town in the Alps. The regional train follows the Landwasser river, entering the wild Zügen

Gorge to cross the river via the Wiesen Viaduct, the highest bridge on the RhB network. At Filisur, you can board the Bernina Express. From Filisur the train negotiates breathtaking feats of railway engineering including helical tunnels 5 as it makes its ascent to the Albula Tunnel, gateway to the magnificent Engadin 6 and chic St. Moritz. The train continues upwards, passing the mighty glacier world of the Bernina massif 7. The boundless freedom of the mountains becomes a tangible reality at the Lago Bianco 8! But now the south makes itself felt down below, the train twisting and turning from an altitude of more than 2,200 metres down past Alp Grüm 9 into the Poschiavo Valley 10 and over the famous Brusio Circular Viaduct 11 to Tirano 12 in Italy at an altitude of 429 m.

Bernina Express Bus

Tirano – Lugano

Fancy sniffing even more southern air? The scenic journey continues aboard the Bernina Express Bus. The trip from Tirano to Lugano 13 passes vineyards in the Valtellina region, through picturesque villages and along Lake Como.
